Beste Albe

Aangeheg die dokumentasie soos gevra.

Ek wil my stoet van my persoonlike naam oordra na n Trust waarvan ek n Trustee is. Naamlik Broerdery Trust. Alles kan eintlik presies dieselfde bly maar net nie meer in my naam nie maar in "Broerdery Trust" se naam.

As daar enige vrac is laat weet asb.

Groete

Identity number 831215 5068 084

and

John Thorne Hillary Erasmus
Identity number 860724 000 51
("the Trustees")

WHEREAS: The Donor is desirous of establishing a Trust and making a donation to the Trustees of the Trust to be held by them on behalf of and for the benefit of the Beneficiaries, on the terms and conditions and to the intents and purposes hereinafter set out;

INTERPRETATION:

In this deed, unless a contrary intention clearly appears

- a) words importing any gender shall include the other two and words importing the singular shall include the plural and vice versa;
- b) in determining whether a person is a child or descendant of another person, all adopted children shall be deemed to be children of their adoptive parents but, save to the extent that this deed expressly provides otherwise, the actual ascendants or siblings of an adopted child shall not, by virtue of this deeming provision, enjoy any benefits under this deed;
- c) the headings are used for reference and convenience only and shall in no way be used to explain or amplify or modify or aid in the interpretation of this deed;
- d) "beneficiary" means Pieter Willem Jacobus Reyneke and / or his wife Lyrissa and / or their children, and/or grandchildren and/or grand grandchildren, and John Thorne Hillery Erasmus and / or his wife Anke and / or their children, and/or grandchildren and/or grand grandchildren
- e) "discretion" shall be interpreted in accordance with the provisions of clause 8.1;
- f) "the distribution event" means the event referred to in clause 11.1;
- g) "maintenance" when used in relation to a person, means, without derogating from the generality of the concept maintenance, his travels, holidays, medical, dental and similar treatment or profession or fitting him for a career;
- h) the "trust capital" means the capital of the trust, consisting of the trust fund including any part of its income which is not distributed and is accumulated to the capital but after deducting the aggregates of –
 - i. the liabilities of the trust, both actual and contingent; and
 - ii. the sum of all provisions for depreciation, renewals or diminution in value of assets or for liabilities (actual or contingent) the amount of which cannot be determined with substantial accuracy;
- i) "the trustees" means not only the first trustees but also any persons assumed by or succeeding them as trustees or appointed in terms of clause 5.

 J.E.
 HE

1. CREATION AND NAME OF TRUST

1.1 A trust is hereby constituted and shall be known as the Broerdery Trust.

2. DONATION

This Donor hereby donates to the Trustees in their capacity as such:

2.1 the amount of N$100,00; and

2.2 which, together with any other assets of any kind whatsoever which the Trust may at any time here acquire, either by donation from the Donor or by donation from any other person, or by inheritance, or by acquisition, or from any other cause or source, are all referred to as "the Trust Assets";

3. VESTING OF ASSETS IN TRUSTEES

3.2 Any other assets acquired after the execution hereof shall vest in the trustees in their official capacities as trustees in order that they may deal with the capital and income of the trust on behalf of the beneficiaries.

4. ORIGINAL TRUSTEES

The original Trustees of the Trust shall be those who are named in this Trust Deed, namely Harold Hillery Erasmus, Pieter Willem Jacobus Reyneke and John Thorne Hillery Erasmus.

5. APPOINTMENT OF AND LOSS OF OFFICE BY TRUSTEES

5.1 There shall at all times be not less than TWO trustees and not more than THREE trustees. If at one time the number of trustees shall fall below three and no provision is made in this deed for the appointment of new trustees which is effective, the remaining trustees shall, as soon as possible, assume some other person or persons to act with them so as to bring the number up to three and if they fail to do so within sixty days, or if there are not trustees, the accountants of the trust shall make the necessary appointment or appointments. Save as aforesaid and subject to clause 7.1, until any such assumption or appointment is made, the remaining trustees shall be entitled to continue to act in all matters affecting the trust.

5.2 The trustees shall have the powers of assumption and co-option.

5.3 Any assumption of a trustee or trustees shall be effected by means of a written document under the hand of the person or persons entitled to make it and such trustees shall be entitled to act as trustee only from the time that letters of authority have been issued to him by the Master of the High Court.

5.4 Each trustee shall have the power from time to time to appoint any other person to act as his alternate during his absence or inability to act as trustee. An alternate trustee, whilst acting in the place of the trustee who appointed him, shall exercise and discharge all the duties and functions of the trustee he represents. The appointment of an alternate trustee shall cease on the happening of any event which, if he were trustee, would disqualify him from acting as such on any of the grounds set out in clause 5.6 or clause 5.7 or if the trustee who appointed him ceases to be a trustee, or gives notice to the remaining trustees that the alternate trustee representing him shall cease to do so.

5.5 Any appointment of an alternate trustee shall be effected by means of a written document under the hand of the person entitled to make it.

Handwritten signatures and initials, including "PR IE" and "HE".

- 5.6 The following person shall be disqualified from acting as trustee -
- 5.6.1 any person who would be disqualified from acting as a director of a company in terms of section 218(1) (c) or (d) of the Companies Act 1973, as amended, or any corresponding statutory provisions;
 - 5.6.2 a person whose estate has been sequestered and has not been rehabilitated;
 - 5.6.3 a person who has been certified a lunatic or is of unsound mind or has been declared incapable of managing his affairs;
 - 5.6.4 a person who has been convicted of any crime involving dishonesty and is sentenced therefor to serve a term of imprisonment without the option of a fine;
 - 5.6.5 a company which has been liquidated or placed under Judicial management, whether provisionally or finally.
- 5.7 The office of a trustee shall be vacated if:
- 5.7.1 he becomes disqualified in terms of clause 5.6;
 - 5.7.2 an application is filed for the sequestration of his estate upon which a provisional order of sequestration is subsequently granted or an application is filed for the surrender of his estate or for an administration order or if he commits an act of insolvency as defined in the Insolvency law for the time being in force or if he makes any arrangement or composition with his creditors generally;
 - 5.7.3 he resigns his office by not less than 60 days (or such shorter period as the remaining trustees or trustee may agree to) written notice to the remaining trustee or trustees.

6. TRUSTEE SECURITY

No Trustee, whether an original Trustee or one appointed in terms of clause 5 shall be required to furnish security to the Master of the High Court or to any other authority, and whether under the Trust Monies Protection Act, Act no 34 of 1934, or under any other statutory provision, for the due performance of his duties as Trustee.

7. PROCEEDINGS OF TRUSTEES

- 7.1 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein contained, no power or discretion vested in, or granted to the trustees to pay any income or capital of the trust to any beneficiary, who is a trustee, or his spouse, or to amend this deed, or to terminate this trust before the arrival date or, if there is more than one date, the later or latest of the dates, as the case may be, referred to in clause 11.1, may be exercised and no agreement or transaction to which a trustee or his spouse is a party, or in which a trustee or his spouse is directly or indirectly interested may be entered into unless:
- 7.1.1 there is in office at least one trustee who is not a beneficiary or the spouse of a beneficiary or descendant of a beneficiary; and
 - 7.1.2 subject to any requirements of unanimity or a great majority of the trustees, that other trustee decides to exercise or, if there are more than one such trustee, a majority of them vote in favour of the exercise of the power of discretion accordingly, or the entering into of the agreement or transaction.
- 7.2 Meeting of trustees:
- 7.2.1 Reasonable notice shall be given of meetings of the trustees.
 - 7.2.2 Save as set out in clause 7.3, the trustees shall meet together for the dispatch of business, adjourn and, subject to clause 7.2.1, otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit.
 - 7.2.3 The trustees may from time to time elect a chairman to hold office for such period or periods as they may determine.

- 7.2.4 At meetings of the trustees a majority of the trustees shall constitute a quorum.
- 7.2.5 trustee may, subject to clause 7.2.1, at any time summons a meeting of trustees.
- 7.3 A resolution in writing signed by all the trustees shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of the trustees duly called and constituted.
- 7.4 The trustees shall have the power to delegate any of their powers to committees consisting of one or more trustees.
8. DECISIONS OF TRUSTEES
- 8.1 Where this deed provides for the exercise of discretion by the trustees or the exercise of any power in their discretion, the discretion shall be the sole and absolute discretion of the trustees, as they think fit. Where the trustees have the discretion to pay or apply income or capital to or for the maintenance of a beneficiary the trustees may, except to the extent that this deed expressly otherwise provides, exercise that discretion in a manner which they consider to be advisable for the best interests and general welfare of the beneficiary considering the beneficiary's accustomed standard of living and without regard to the income and other resources available to the beneficiary from all other sources and where the trustees have the power to apply resources of the trust to set a beneficiary up in business or a profession they may do so inter alia by purchasing, starting or investing in a business or providing the beneficiary with funds to assist him to do so which appears to be sound or promising although it may not be the type of investment in which trust funds would ordinarily be invested.
- 8.2 All decisions of the trustees shall be by way of majority vote, provided that if there is no majority in regard to any particular matter, the matter shall be referred for decision to a Senior Legal Practitioner practising as such in the Republic of Namibia or to an Attorney (of not less than ten years standing) agreed upon between the trustees, and failing agreement, nominated by the President for the time being of the Law Society of Namibia. The person to whom the matter is referred shall act as an expert and not as an arbitrator, and his decision shall be final and binding on the Trustees and all interested parties.
- 8.3 No trustee shall be disqualified by his office from contracting with the Trust or any company in which the Trust is interested nor shall any contract entered into by the Trust or any such company in which any trustee may be interested, be invalidated or voided by reason of such interest, nor shall any trustee so contracting or being so interested or acquiring any benefit under any contract entered into with the Trust or any such company, be liable to account to the Trust for any profits or benefits realised by or under such contract by reason only of his holding that office; provided that he shall have disclosed to the remaining trustee or trustees the nature of his interest before making the contract if it shall not already have been known to him or them.
- 8.4 Subject to clause 7.1 a trustee or any firm of which he is a member or partner may be employed to act in any manner relating to the trust and the administration thereof and shall be entitled to charge and be paid for any services rendered by him or his firm in a professional capacity, including acts which any trustee could have done personally.
- 8.5 No trustee shall be liable to make good to the trust or any beneficiary any loss occasioned or sustained by any cause, howsoever arising, except such loss as may arise from or be occasioned by his own personal dishonesty or other wilful misconduct or gross negligence.
- 8.6 No trustee shall be liable for any act of dishonesty or other misconduct committed by any other trustee unless he knowingly allowed it or was an accessory thereto.
- 8.7 The trustees shall be indemnified out of the trust funds against all claims and demands of whatsoever nature that may be made upon them arising out of the exercise or purported exercise of any of the powers hereby conferred upon them.
- 8.8 If the trustees bona fide make any payment to any person whom they assume to be entitled thereto under the terms of this deed and it be subsequently found that some other person or persons is or are entitled thereto hereunder, the trustees shall nevertheless not be responsible for the moneys so paid.

- 8.9 If the trust fund includes any shares or interest in a company which confer the right or power to control that company and/or any of its subsidiaries, the trustees shall be under no obligation or duty to appoint any representative to the board of the company or any of its subsidiaries and shall have no responsibilities to inquire into, oversee or take part in the management, affairs or business of the company or any of its subsidiaries.

9. POWERS OF TRUSTEES

The Trustees shall in their discretion invest and deal with the Trust Assets for the purpose of the Trust and possess and enjoy all powers necessary for or incidental to such purpose, and they shall, inter alia, and without limitation of the general powers or discretions hereby conferred, have the following rights and powers which they may exercise in their discretion: -

- 9.1 to open and operate any banking account, to draw and issue cheques, to receive cheques, promissory notes and bills of exchange and to endorse any of them for collection by the bank at which the account was opened. For the purpose of this sub clause the signatures of any of the three trustees shall be sufficient for the drawing of any negotiable instrument issued by them and the signature of any of the three trustees shall be sufficient for the endorsement of any negotiable instrument for collection by the bank. The trustees may at any time appoint authorised signatories to the bank account as they deem fit;
- 9.2 to invest and to vary any investment by realising it or substituting for it any other investment which the trustees are empowered to make.
- 9.3 to improve or alter and maintain improved or unimproved property belonging to the Trust and to have improvements constructed or demolished;
- 9.4 to sue for, recover and receive all debts or sums of money, goods, effects and things whatsoever which may become due, owing and payable to the Trust;
- 9.5 to defend, oppose, adjust, settle, compromise or submit to arbitration all accounts, debts, claims, demands, disputes, legal proceedings and matters which may subsist or arise between the Trust and any person, company, corporation or body and to do and execute all necessary acts and documents for such purpose;
- 9.6 to attend all meetings of creditors of any person, company, corporation or body whatsoever indebted to the Trust, whether in insolvency, liquidation, judicial management or otherwise and to vote for the appointment of a trustee or liquidator or judicial manager and to vote on all questions submitted to any such meeting of creditors and generally to exercise all rights accruing to a creditor.
- 9.7 to give receipts, releases or other effectual discharges for any amount of money or thing recovered;
- 9.8 to engage the services of professional practitioners or tradesmen of whatsoever nature for the performance of work and rendering of services necessary or incidental to the affairs of the trust;
- 9.9 to pay out of the funds of the Trust all debts incurred on behalf of the trust by Trustees in the exercise of their powers;
- 9.10 to accept on behalf of the Trust all or any donations from the Donor, or inheritances, or assets from any other source or any other person whatsoever, subject to all the terms and conditions of this deed, with such amendments, variations or additions as may be stipulated in the documents, if any, creating any such further donations;
- 9.11 to exchange, sell, alienate, lease or otherwise deal with the trust assets, whether movable or immovable, whether corporeal or incorporeal and of whatsoever nature and wherever situated, as they in their sole and absolute discretion may deem fit, and in exercising any powers aforesaid, whether conferred in this sub clause or otherwise, they shall be entitled to cause such sale to be effected by public auction or by private treaty and in such manner and on such terms and conditions as they in their sole and absolute discretion may deem fit and, in exercising any powers of lease, they shall be entitled to cause any property to be let at such rental, for such period and on such terms and conditions as they in their sole and absolute discretion may deem fit;

- 9.12 in their sole and absolute discretion, to borrow money for the purposes hereof at such time or times, at such rates of interest or other consideration for any such loan and upon such terms and conditions as they may deem desirable. Such borrowings may be made from any suitable person or persons and, should they consider it advisable so to do, the trustees may secure the payment of any such loan by pledging or mortgaging the trust assets or any part thereof or by some other security device. Any such loan or loans may be extended, renewed, or repaid from time to time as the trustees may deem to be in the best interest of the trust;
- 9.13 to decide what monies represent capital and what income, to determine whether any sums received or disbursed are on account of capital or income or partly on account of one and partly on account of the other and in what proportions and the decision of the trustee whether made in writing or implied from their acts shall be conclusive and binding upon all the beneficiaries;
- 9.14 to make all apportionments in the accounts of the trust which may be necessary;
- 9.15 to enter into indemnities, guarantees or surety ships of every description (either gratuitously or for consideration) which they in their sole and absolute discretion may deem fit;
- 9.16 with regard to any immovable property or mortgage bond at any time forming part of the trust assets, to execute an act or deed relating to alienation, partitions, change, transfer, mortgage, hypothecation or otherwise in any deeds registry, mining titles offices or other public office dealing with servitudes, usufructs, limited interests or otherwise; and to make any applications, grant any consents, and agree to any amendments, variations, cancellations, cessions, releases, reductions, substitutions or otherwise generally relating to any deed, bond or document or any purposes and generally to do or cause to be done any act whatsoever in any such office;
- 9.17 to pay any beneficiary any amount due to the beneficiary in cash or in kind or partly in cash and partly in kind, with the power in their discretion to determine the selection and valuation of any assets to be distributed and the manner of distribution thereof among beneficiaries provided that
- 9.17.1 the trustees may employ a valuator for the purposes of determining the value of any such assets;
- 9.17.2 the decision of the trustees as to the value of any assets for the purpose of this paragraph shall be final and binding on all interested persons;
- 9.17.3 no beneficiary may dispute the value of any such assets.
- 9.18 to do all or any of the aforementioned things and to exercise all or any of the aforementioned rights and powers in the Republic of Namibia or in any other part of the world, and in particular to enter into contracts with themselves in their personal capacities either together or alone, provided that their interest in such contracts are disclosed.
- 9.19 to delegate, from time to time, to any person whom the trustees consider to be competent and capable, the above mentioned powers.
10. INCOME OF THE TRUST
- 10.1 Until the distribution event the trustees shall be empowered to apply the whole of the gross or net income of the trust from time to time for the maintenance of or in payments to the beneficiary in such amounts as the trustees in their sole discretion may decide.
- 10.2 Where the trustees decide to pay any income to a beneficiary in terms of clause 10.1 they may instead of actually making payment to him, retain and earmark the amount so payable on behalf of the beneficiary (but such income shall accrue to and vest in the beneficiary) and accumulate and/or invest for such beneficiary's sole and exclusive benefit or treat as a loan to or claim against the trust all unexpended balances of such income together with any further income that may be derived therefrom and other accretions thereto on the basis that any such accumulation of such income, whether invested or not, shall remain the sole property of such beneficiary only at such times and in such amounts as the trustees in their discretion may decide, provided that any income which has accrued to and vested in but has not been paid to such beneficiary including any further income derived therefrom and other accretions thereto shall -

HE II

10.2.1 on his death be paid to the executor of his estate on demand;

10.2.2 on the occurrence of the distribution event be paid to him.

10.3 Where the income of the trust is at any time derived from different sources or is of different kinds, the trustees shall be entitled for the purpose of or in allocating, distributing or applying any part of that income, to identify its source or sources and its nature and to allocate or distribute or apply it as income derived from the source or sources and of the nature so identified.

10.4 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this deed, no income may be applied for the maintenance of or paid to or placed to the credit of a beneficiary who is not a resident of the Rand Monetary Union without such consent as may be required in terms of the exchange control regulations of the Republic of Namibia.

10.5 The trustees shall be empowered in their discretion to apply the net income of the trust and, if that is not adequate, the trust capital, in defraying any expenses incurred by or for the benefit of a deceased beneficiary during his lifetime, and in paying the costs of and incidental to the funeral or cremation of any deceased beneficiary and any other expenses arising from his death.

11. THE TRUST CAPITAL

11.1 The trust capital shall be distributable immediately after the majority of trustees have resolved to do so (the date upon which the trust capital is distributable being "the distribution event").

11.2 At any time before the distribution event, the trustees shall be empowered in their discretion to pay to the beneficiary in terms of clause 10.1 any part or parts of the trust capital to such extent and such proportions as they may from time to time in their discretion deem fit subject to the powers and provisions contained in clause 10.2 mutatis mutandis, provided that –

11.2.1 in determining whether there is capital available for distribution in terms of this clause the trustees shall be entitled to revalue the assets of the trust provided that they revalue them all and the provisions of clause;

11.2.2 the trustees may in their discretion stipulate that the capital paid to the beneficiary as aforesaid shall be taken into account as an advance payment on account of the capital payable to him in terms of clause 11.3 and in that event an appropriate adjustment shall be made when the trust capital is paid out in terms of clause 11.3

11.3 On the occurrence of the distribution event –

11.3.1 any income or capital that has vested in and accrued to the beneficiary in terms of clause 10.2 or clause 11.2 together with all unpaid income derived therefrom and all accretions thereto shall be paid to him;

11.3.2 the balance of the trust capital shall be paid to the beneficiaries in such shares as the trustees in their sole, absolute and unfettered discretion may determine.

11.3.3 when trust capital has been dealt with according to 11.3.1 and 11.3.2 the trust must be deregistered at the Master's Office within three months from final distributions.

11.4 The trustees may in their discretion divide the trust fund into separate funds for different beneficiaries, by allocating in such manner as they deem fit to each of those funds, assets which form part of the trust fund, the amounts of which shall take into account the eventual potential capital benefits of the beneficiaries for whom those funds are thus allocated, and stipulate that any particular fund shall be for any particular beneficiary or group of beneficiaries, but on the basis that all the provisions of the trust deed applicable to the trust fund shall continue to apply to the separate trust funds so established. When acting in terms hereof the trustees may stipulate that the beneficiaries of any particular fund shall be one or more beneficiaries or groups of beneficiaries with provisions for succession and substitution, and limit the application, use and distribution of the income and capital attributable to that trust fund to those beneficiaries or their substitutes. The object of conferring to trustees this discretion is to make provision for flexibility in the treatment of the assets and the grant of benefits to beneficiaries, having regard to their individual circumstances and requirements.

12. BENEFICIARY NOT TO DEAL WITH TRUST ASSETS

- 12.1 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein contained, the capital or income to which any Beneficiary is or may become entitled by virtue of this Deed shall not prior to distribution or payment thereof by the trustees to such Beneficiary, be capable of being ceded, assigned, mortgaged or pledged by such beneficiary.
- 12.2 If, prior to distribution of the trust assets or payment of income as aforementioned being made to a beneficiary the beneficiary purports to or attempts to cede, assign, mortgage or pledge such trust assets and/or income or any part thereof then the contingent right of that beneficiary to any share of the trust assets and/or income shall be suspended and shall remain vested in the trustees subject to the provisions of 12.4 hereof.
- 12.3 The trustees shall, in the event mentioned in sub clause 12.2 hereof, subject to the further conditions set out in 12.4 and 12.5 hereof, apply the trust assets and/or income for the maintenance of a beneficiary or his/her spouse.
- 12.4 On the discharge of the occurrence giving rise to a suspension in terms of 12.2 hereof, the interest of that beneficiary shall vest in that beneficiary and become fully operative in accordance with the provisions of this trust deed.
- 12.5 When a beneficiary dies and the event set out in 12.4 hereof has not taken place, the right of that beneficiary which has been so suspended, shall be transferred to the remaining beneficiaries.
- 12.6 The trustees shall be entitled to refuse to recognise and to treat as null and void any cession, assignment or pledge of the rights or hopes of any beneficiary hereunder. The trustees may refuse to make any payment otherwise than direct to or on behalf of or for the benefit of the person entitled thereto under this trust deed.

13. REMUNERATION AND EXPENSES OF TRUSTEES

- 13.1 The trustees hereby agree to act in that office free of charge.
- 13.2 The trustees shall be entitled to reimburse themselves and pay and discharge out of the income of the Trust all expenses incurred in or about the execution of the Trust and the carrying out of the powers conferred upon them.
- 13.3 Fees for professional services rendered:
- 13.3.1 Any attorney, accountant or broker acting as a trustee under this deed shall be entitled for his own benefit or for the benefit of any firm or company of which he may be a member to charge normal fees for professional services rendered to the trust or in connection therewith.

14. INDEMNITY

- 14.1 None of the trustees shall be answerable for or liable to make good any loss occasioned to or sustained by the Trust from any cause whatsoever save for any loss as shall arise from the dishonesty of the trustees involved.
- 14.2 No trustee shall be liable for any act of dishonesty committed by a co-trustee unless he was a party thereto. The trustee shall at all times be deemed to have been indemnified out of the Trust Assets against all claims and demands of whatsoever nature arising out of the exercise or purported exercise by them of any powers conferred under this Deed.

15. APPOINTMENT OF AUDITORS/ACCOUNTANTS

The Trustees shall from time to time appoint an accountant or auditor to act as the accountant/auditor of the Trust. As at the last day of February (or as at such other date as the trustees shall from time to time determine) in each and every year, the Trustees shall cause to be framed an account of the administration of the Trust, disclosing the capital of the Trust with all additions thereto and all receipts and payments made by the Trustees and the manner in which the Trust Funds are held and invested. Each Beneficiary under this Deed or his legal representative shall on request be entitled to a true copy of each such account, duly certified by the accountant/auditor of the Trust, in the customary manner.

16. AMENDMENT OF DEED

The Donor may during his/her lifetime, with the consent of the majority of the trustees and following his death, the majority of the trustees may revise or amend this trust deed provided that such provisional amendment does not constitute any revocation of the trust. The trustees may further amend or revise this trust deed in event of any legislation necessitating such amendment or revision to comply therewith. The indemnity referred to in clause 14 shall also be applicable mutatis mutandis in respect of any damages suffered as a result of the said revision or amendment.

17. PROTECTION OF BENEFICIARIES' RIGHTS AND INTERESTS

17.1 No rights or hopes of the beneficiaries under this trust and no part thereof shall be attachable by any creditor of any beneficiary, or vest in his trustee in insolvency, and, if prior to any payment being made to any beneficiary he shall have committed or suffered any act, default or process of law (other than cession, assignation, pledge or other encumbrance which the trustees have not refused to recognise in terms of clause 12.6) whereby such rights or hopes or any part thereof would, but for the provisions of this clause, become vested in or payable to any other party, or if any beneficiary shall be declared insolvent or assign his estate in favour of his creditors, or if any attachment is made or execution is levied on or against the rights and hopes of the beneficiary or any part thereof, then and in any or all of such cases, the rights and hopes of the beneficiary concerned under this trust shall immediately and entirely thenceforth cease and terminate and those rights and hopes shall thereupon and subject to the provisions below devolve upon and vest in such other parties as would be entitled thereto if the beneficiary concerned had died at the time of such cessation and termination – provided that:

17.1.1 no such beneficiary shall be obliged to repay to the trust any amounts previously paid or advanced to him by the trust;

17.1.2 the trustees shall be entitled, in their discretion, to continue to hold in trust for the lifetime, or lesser period, of the beneficiary concerned, the share or part of the share of the trust capital to which he would, but for the provisions of this clause 17, have been or become entitled on the happening of the event specified in clause 11; and

17.1.3 if the trustees do continue to hold the said share of the trust capital as aforesaid, then, notwithstanding the rights and hopes of the beneficiary shall have ceased and terminated and notwithstanding anything contrary herein contained, such rights and hopes shall, on the beneficiary's death, devolve upon the parties entitled thereto by substitution determined as at the date of death of the beneficiary.

17.2 Any amounts that have vested in and accrued to a beneficiary in terms of clause 10.2 or clause 11.2 and accretions thereof and income thereon, are excluded from the operation of clause 17.1.

18. RENUNCIATION BY BENEFICIARY

Any Beneficiary shall be entitled by written notice to the Trustees to declare that he shall thenceforth cease to be a Beneficiary of the Trust and on delivery of such notice the Trust shall thenceforth take effect as if that beneficiary was dead.

19. EXCLUSION OF COMMUNITY OF PROPERTY AND MARITAL POWER

All benefits which any beneficiary may receive in terms of this trust deed shall at all times and for all purposes be excluded from any community of property or any community of profit and loss or any accrual in terms of the Matrimonial Property Act 1984 of the Republic of South Africa.

20. TAXATION

20.1 In the event of the Donor being assessed for taxes in respect of any income derived by or accrued to the Trust, the trustees shall, out of the income of the Trust, pay the tax assessed and if the Donor shall have paid the taxes, the amount thereof shall be a debt due to the Donor. The "tax assessed" shall mean the difference between the taxes assessed on the Donor's income including such income of the Trust and the taxes which would have been assessed excluding such income.

- 20.2 In the event of the estate of a beneficiary becoming liable for any estate duty in respect of this trust, the trustees shall pay the duty from the capital of the trust. The "estate duty" shall mean the difference between the estate duty levied from the Donor's entire estate including property arising from the existence and provisions of this trust, and the estate duty which would have been payable had such property not been subject to duty. The trustees' liability shall only be to the extent of the capital, if any, remaining at the time of the assessment of the duty.

21. CREATION OF ADDITIONAL TRUSTS

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein contained, if prior to the vesting date the trustees shall consider it advisable or prudent to do so, then they shall be entitled to create a new Trust in respect of the capital which would otherwise vest in any beneficiary for the benefit of such beneficiary or his descendants. The new trust shall be constituted by means of a formal deed of trust and all its terms and conditions and the power to appoint trustees shall be in the sole discretion of the trustees.

22. TESTAMENTARY PROVISIONS

- 22.1 It is specifically recorded that in the event of any beneficiaries acting as trustees they shall, by way of testamentary disposition have the right:
- 22.1.1 to appoint trustees of the trust;
 - 22.1.2 to determine the remuneration of the trustees and the formula for the accrual of benefits to the income beneficiaries out of the trust income and to the capital beneficiaries out of the undivided portion of the trust capital so as to determine whether and in what proportions the beneficiaries shall receive such benefits after death of the Testators.
- 22.2 Should the prerogative set out in 22.1 above be exercised by way of a testamentary disposition, such testamentary directions shall, after the death of the Testators, and notwithstanding any other decision of the trustees to the contrary, be binding and receive precedence with regard to the determination of the trustees remuneration and the benefits which shall accrue to the beneficiaries.
- 22.3 In the event that no specific directions or instructions are given by the Testators, then the trustees' remuneration and the division and allocation of the capital and income shall take place in accordance with the provisions of this trust deed.
- 22.4 The provisions of clause 22.1 shall not be interpreted so as to give the impression that the Testators has the right to allocate trust income or capital to themselves or his/her/their estate(s), and refer only to division thereof amongst the beneficiaries, and no person or body of persons other than the beneficiaries may benefit from such division.
- 22.5 If in the opinion of the trustees any bequest in the Will(s) of the Testators would have the effect of rendering this trust deed invalid, then the trustees are authorised to revoke such provision or to amend it so as to avoid such invalidity and the exercise by the trustees of such powers shall not render them liable for claims against them by any beneficiary or potential beneficiary.

23. ACCEPTANCE

The trustees hereby accept office as such and undertake to discharge their duties in terms of this Deed.

THUS DONE AND EXECUTED at WINDHOEK on the 28th day of August 2018 in the presence of the undersigned witnesses:
