Good day Muhammed,

We trust that you are doing well.

Thank you for your email. We acknowledge receipt thereof and note the information provided.

Please note that neither the Society nor SA Stud Book received any written notification before 26 June advising that Simply Wagyu no longer had any stud animals registered with the WSA and that all animals had been transferred to CWB.

Our records are updated based on the information available to us at the time. We will review your records accordingly and make any necessary amendments where applicable.

Should you have any supporting documentation regarding the transfer of the animals, please forward it to Ivonne and us for our records.

Should you wish to cancel your membership with the WSA, we kindly request that you provide us with a written notice confirming your intention to terminate your WSA membership. Upon receipt of your written cancellation, we will process your request accordingly.

Vriendelike groete/Kind regards

Good Day Ezelle

There seems to be some mistake here. Simply Wagyu does not have any stud animals in its herd. All our animals have been moved to CWB and are currently feeding for slaughter.

Please rectify and revert.

Ivonne, Kindly confirm and advise.

Thank you

Kind regards

M Akoob
