Good Morning Marietjie

I hope you had a good weekend.

Please find the following calf swap for the following two cows, and please use this email chain as the ESB document.

1) BMA M CM 18-0243 (0088090089)

-- please change the dam of this animal to BMA F CM 15-0211 (0083393280)

-- animal stays a B due to Multiple Sire

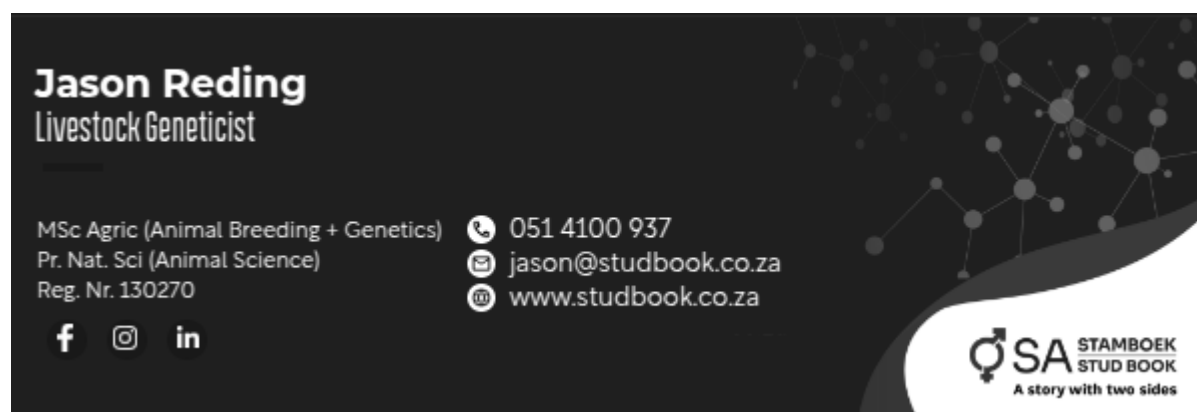

2) BMA M CM 18-0242 (0088090071)

-- please change the dam of this animal to BMA F CM 14-0522 (0085722361)

-- please change the section of this animal to a Section B, as the Dam is now a Section A.

Once this done, please let me know and I will fix up the genomic side!

Warm Regards

Hi Magda

Please see me email to Jason to try resolve this Pending BP24 0508

1. I AM PREPARED TO DOWNGRADE CM18 0242
2. Could you discuss with DagBestuur

Hi Mark

Please discuss this with Magda and the Dag Bestuur.

Yes, she is not genomically or DNA tested, but is the most likely dam.

The only issues are that she is a Section A, then downgrading CM 18-0242 from a C to a B, and then all his progenies sections must be re-calculated.

Warm Regards

Hi Jason

1. Can we do a calf switch with CM14 0522
2. I assume that CM14 0522 HAS NOT BEEN Genomically tested

We can then proceed with sorting out this pending query

Hello Mark

Thank you for your email!

As indicated, I am unable to discover the true dam of this animal, meaning she is not yet genomically tested!

I have had a look at the female animals that calved within a 3 day window period to 15-0211 (The Dam now in conflict with 18-0242).

-- the following animals are the only ones not matched to a calf (not yet verified), but the problem is that all of these possible cows were never DNA Tested and are now cancelled.

CM 14-0522 (Calf is CM 18-0243)

CM 14-0218 (Calf is CM 18-0247)

CM 16-0019 (Calf is CM 18-0248)

Thus, unless we suspect that it may of been a calf switch with CM 14-0522, we have no way of currently verifying this.

Magda and Herman, what would be the right way forward with this sire, as he is now pending and thus all calves are now pending.

Hi Jason

BP24 0508

I refer to correspondence below

1. I bought CM18 0242 from Andries van Niekerk as a weaner calf in 2019
2. The dam CM15 0211 has now been Genomically tested and no longer the dam of CM 18 0242
3. I can't be penalised for a book error made in 2018 that only appears in 2026
4. I might take months to find the real dam of CM18 0242
5. I need BP24 0508 to be removed from Pending by whatever means possible so that I can finalise my catalogue

I trust that this matter will receive your urgent attention

Hello Mark

I tried phoning back but did not manage to get through to you.

I know we already sorted out BP 23-0613, meaning that BP 24-0508 is the only bull left pending due to a genomic reason.

The reason this animal is indicated in the list, is because the sire, CM 18-0242 has a dam conflict with CM 15-0211

BEEFMASTER(BMA)		Animal:	Sire:	Dam:
Identification Number		BMAACM 180242	BMAACM 150105	BMAACM 150211

Result		Matching Sire and Dam

The dam was genotyped recently by Cliffie, and as she matches both parents as well as a few MX calves, we can 100% say that CM 18-0242 is not her calf.

Unfortunately, I am currently unable to identify the true dam, meaning she is not yet genomically tested.
